

Notice of Suspension about Kitchen & Bath China 2020

In view of the rapid outbreak of Covid-19 pandemic worldwide, China has decided to temporarily suspend entry of foreigners with currently valid visas and residence permits in China from 00:00 on March 28, 2020. Such suspension was announced by Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China, National Immigration Administration on March 26. The office of the Shanghai Covid-19 Epidemic Prevention & Control Leading Group decided to implement a 14-day centralized quarantine health observation for all immigrants entering Shanghai starting at 00:00 on March 28.

As the top three kitchen and bathroom showcases in the world, the organizers have invested huge manpower, financial resources and material resources to organize the exhibition as scheduled, and all preparations are ready. However, the current pandemic of Covid-19 is spreading rapidly across the world, overseas exhibitors and buyers have been unable to attend the exhibition objectively. As an industry platform for the global supply chain and the annual trade volume of import and export trades reaching tens of billions of Yuan, during this extraordinary period of global anti-epidemic, we put the security interests of all exhibitors and buyers first, and take into account the difficulties faced by exhibitors and buyers. According to the "Notice of the State Council on the Covid-19 Joint Prevention and Control Mechanism on Further Doing a Good Job in the Prevention and Control of Covid-19 Outbreaks in Key Places, Key Units, and Key Populations" released document number [2020] 16, large-scale gathering sports such as marathon running, gathering religious activities, various exhibitions and conventions, etc. will not be carried out for the time being. After extensively soliciting opinions from exhibitors, the organizers decided and announced: Kitchen & Bath China 2020 originally scheduled to be held at the Shanghai New International Expo Centre from June 2 to 5, 2020 (the 25th) --- be suspended! Next, the organizers will make a comprehensive assessment of the pandemic situation and the promulgation of national policies to determine how to restart the exhibition.

Dear exhibitors and buyers, a sudden pandemic disrupted the rhythm of all companies. In this special period, the organizers of the Kitchen & Bath China will work together with the industry to strengthen their confidence and overcome the difficulties to meet the future. The decision to suspend the exhibition will help exhibitors and buyers to reserve more energy, expand new products and optimize operations. After the pandemic, there will be a concentrated outbreak of enthusiasm for exhibitors in the industry. The organizers will continue to fully prepare for this and continue to provide you with more professional and forward-looking services.
